Announcements

Diversity Week: October 9th – 15th

Visit diversity.wvu.edu/di/diversity-week for a full schedule online.

International Night: Thursday, October 13th, 5-6:30pm, Blue Ballroom, Mountainlair

The event has a goal to raise awareness of the numerous cultures and heritages present on campus through a single event, International Night will highlight the diversity at WVU. Yielding both cultural and educational benefits for students, the event will feature student organizations that reach globally through free food, music, dance, art and educational exhibits. It will be an enjoyable experience to celebrate our differences while promoting the unity of our one mountaineer family.

Students for Children's Healthcare Fundraiser: Saturday, October 15th, 6-9pm, Mountainlair

Support the goal of organizing eye health camps for children affected by flooding in West Virginia and Tucker, a 13 year old boy who has undergone multiple organ transplants, and his family's finances resulting from those procedures.

Indian Classical Dance Performance – 6-7:30pm, Gluck Theatre

International Food for Dinner – 7:30pm-10pm, Hatfield's

Touchdowns for Tucker: Saturday, October 15th, 10am, Medical Fields

This event will be a flag football tournament. Teams will be of 7 or more people, and the cost is $10 per person to participate. All money raised by this event will be donated to the family of Tucker, who at only 13 years old, has undergone multiple organ transplants and numerous other medical procedures. This event will be listed on iServe as 4 hours of community service. Sign-ups for teams can be done by emailing Maggie Helmick at mkhelmick@mix.wvu.edu.

Feature your events here! Send your announcements to RHA.WVU@gmail.com 48 hours in advance of meetings to have them included in the bi-weekly meeting agenda.
